Great Feast of Pentecost

On this day, the eighth Sunday of Pascha, we celebrate Holy Pentecost.

Verses

In a mighty wind Christ distributeth the Divine Spirit
In the form of fiery tongues unto the Apostles.

In one great day, the Spirit was poured out on the Fishermen.

On this day—the fiftieth after Great and Holy Pascha—we commemorate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the holy Disciples and Apostles in the form of tongues of fire. Numbering about 120, they who followed the Master gathered in Jerusalem in the upper room of a house to await the Lord's promise to send the Holy Spirit. At about the third hour of the day, there came a sound from Heaven as of a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the house. Cloven tongues immediately appeared, like as of fire, and sat upon the head of each of them. The Apostles began to speak, not with the languages of their ancestors, but with other languages with which the Holy Spirit supplied them, as He inspired them. After the Apostle Peter explained what had happened, 3,000 people joined the Church on the inauguration of the priesthood of grace. The objectives of Pentecost are, namely, the coming of the Holy Spirit into the world, the fulfillment of the promise of Jesus Christ, and the completion of the undefiled hope of the Apostles. By the intercessions of the Holy Apostles, O Christ our God, have mercy on us. Amen.

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

*As we move into the summer months, the weather is always very warm. While we need to dress comfortably because of this please remember that shorts or above-the-knee attire, strapless garments, “spaghetti” strap garments, sleeveless or “tanktop” type garments, and tight-fitting, open or low-cut garments are not appropriate, especially for men, women and teenagers. It has always been our tradition to dress modestly and without drawing attention to oneself. Thank you.

Epistle Reading: Acts 2:1-11

Gospel Reading: St. John 7:37-52, 8:12

Saints of the Day

Venerable Onouphrios the Great of Egypt; Venerable Peter the Athonite; Martyr Antonina of Nicaea; Venerable Arsenios of Konevits.

A Message from the Parish Council on Parish Hall Repairs

Dear Parishioners, thank you for your generous support of the Parish since Hurricane Ida. We are now in the middle of making the necessary repairs. The Parish Hall is getting a new metal roof. The men’s room will see new fixtures and repairs. Parts of the Parish Hall will be re-stuccoed and painted. The narthex of our temple will soon have a beautiful new icon of the Transfiguration written by Cheryl Pituch. All of this in the 45th year in the life of our Parish. Thanks be to God! --Rob Booms, Chairman, Parish Council.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

On Cheesefare or Forgiveness Sunday, the possum family was watching the forgiveness line through a crack under the altar. We heard people ask each other for forgiveness by saying “forgive me a sinner,” and the response, “God forgives. I forgive. God forgive us all.” We saw everyone kissing each other on the cheeks three times. But why forgive people you may never have offended and with whom you may not need to be reconciled? The Orthodox Church teaches that the forgiveness line ritual serves to remind us that all of us have sinned and all are called to forgive the sins of others. Studies have shown that, within a church, the ritual helps to resolve petty squabbles and builds a sense of community. How blessed Orthodox people are to be in a church where everyone can exchange a kiss of peace and actively seek reconciliation for slights and wrongs. Having experienced this, Orthodox believers are taught humility and better equipped for spiritual growth--Theo
