The Holy Apostle Peter

Peter was the son of Jonah and the brother of Andrew, the First-called. He was of the Tribe of Simeon from the town of Bethsaida. He was a fisherman and, at first, was called Simon but the Lord was pleased to call him Cephas or Peter: "And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, He said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah: you shall be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a rock" (St. John 1:42). He was the first of the disciples to clearly express faith in the Lord Jesus saying: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God" (St. Matthew 16:16). His love for the Lord was great and his faith in the Lord gradually strengthened. When the Lord was brought to trial, Peter denied Him three times but after only one glance into the face of the Lord, Peter's soul was filled with shame and repentance. After the descent of the Holy Spirit, Peter appears as a fearless and powerful preacher of the Gospel. Following one of his sermons in Jerusalem, 3,000 souls converted to the Faith. He preached the Gospel throughout Palestine and Asia Minor, throughout Illyria and Italy. Peter worked many powerful miracles; he healed the sick, resurrected the dead; the sick were healed even from his shadow. He had a great struggle with Simon the Magician who proclaimed himself as god but in reality Simon was a servant of Satan. Finally, Peter shamed and defeated him. By order of the evil Emperor Nero, Simon's friend, Peter was condemned to death. Installing Linus as Bishop of Rome, counseling and comforting the flock of Christ, Peter proceeded joyfully to his death. Seeing the cross before him, he begged his executioners to crucify him upside down for he considered himself unworthy to die as did his Lord. Thus, the great servant of the Great Lord reposed and received the wreath of eternal glory.

The Holy, Glorious Apostles Peter and Paul

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

*The weather is always very warm during the summer months. While we need to dress comfortably because of this please remember that shorts or above-the-knee attire, strapless garments, “spaghetti” strap garments, sleeveless or “tanktop” type garments, and tight-fitting, open or low-cut garments are not appropriate, especially for men, women and teenagers. It has always been our tradition to dress modestly and without drawing attention to oneself. Thank you.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

“Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal! Have mercy on us!” In the Holy Orthodox Church, we recite this “Trisagion” prayer frequently. At St. Basil, we chant it in English, Arabic, Greek and Slavonic. It is as old as the reign of Byzantine Emperor Theodosius II (408-450 A.D.). Tradition has it that Constantinople was shaken by a great earthquake in 447 A.D. This caused a child to be lifted in the air. When the child descended safely to earth, he exhorted the people to pray “Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal.” Some believe that the prayer is even older and goes back to Nicodemus who is to have shouted this phrase when he saw Jesus’ eyes open during his removal of Christ from the cross. It was certainly in use at the time of the Fourth Ecumenical Council in 451 A.D. Over the years there were several attempts to amend the prayer but these all failed. There were also arguments about whether the prayer addressed only Jesus Christ and not the Father and the Holy Spirit. While the three names apply equally to all three persons of the Holy Trinity, the consensus of the Holy Fathers is that the reference “Holy God” is specific to God the Father. “Holy Mighty” refers to our Lord Jesus Christ. “Holy Immortal” addresses the Holy Spirit. Thanks be to God for providing us with this holy prayer and may it bestow grace and mercy upon us. — Theo

Our Littlest Members

Christ said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for such is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 19:14). In the Orthodox Church, we embrace and welcome our littlest parishioners to join in the Divine Liturgy. They are our future and we want them raised from birth involved in the liturgical experience.

While generally, silence and stillness are valued in worship, the noise of children, especially if they are playfully making noise or expressing themselves, is often viewed as a part of the joyful and vibrant nature of Orthodox worship. It is considered "Holy Noise." The beautiful, resonating sound of our children's cooing or laughter is warming to our hearts.

However, if your child should become fussy, out of control, or inconsolable, please be respectful to those around you and leave the Nave to provide comfort for our little member. They can be brought outside or to St. Basil's Comfort Room. Once consoled and in good spirits, return with our sweet parishioner to resume the liturgy.

Please also remember that there is NO FOOD allowed in church and that includes baby formula (bottle-feeding) and snacks. If our little one is hungry, please bring them to the St. Basil's Comfort Room to feed them. The exception to that is our breastfed little ones. Breastfeeding during worship services is acceptable, but with a focus on discretion and modesty.

To our parents of little ones, we join you in loving prayer and support as you raise the next generation of Orthodox believers. GOD BLESS YOU!

Today's Coffee Hour: Potluck. Thank you. Next Week: Team 1.
